

SHIPPAX

FERRY CONFERENCE 18

Main sponsor:

The annual meeting for ferry shipping professionals • April 18 - 20, 2018 on COLOR MAGIC • Oslo - Kiel - Oslo

Dear Shippax Friends,

Already in 2003, Shippax organized the first annual onboard conference, which since has established itself as one of the most important meetings and networking opportunities for the ferry shipping industry, with some 350-400 delegates attending each year.

As of 2018, the conference will be entirely run by Shippax, and named simply Shippax Ferry Conference, a name most people already use and that fits better with the rest of Shippax services. The same basic concept of the conference will remain, but with a few important improvements, such as having more professional speakers and insights and analyses from experts. We will also to a larger extent present interesting facts and news from our unique statistical database and information sources.

To meet and discuss in combination with having a memorable and enjoyable time together with friends and colleagues in the industry is what the Shippax Ferry Conference is all about, while being onboard a ferry ensures a familiar and close connection between all delegates. Educational and fun!

We are hereby proud to announce that the Shippax Ferry Conference, 2018, will take place onboard:
